MAKING OPPORTUNITIES KNOCK ON YOUR DOOR

We make intimate apparel, well... intimate. And comfortable. But that's only part of the game. Because as women all over the world know, it is more than how it feels – it's also the performance. The stability, strength and endurance. The joy of enhancement and upliftment. After all, we bond and hold the world together.

The largest pad supplier in the South Asian region, Silueta is a design-to-delivery solution provider for bra pads. Silueta is also the exclusive global manufacturer of patented silicone sew-free technology. Servicing global brands such as Victoria's Secret, Marks & Spencer, Nike and LBI our Research & Innovation teams develop innovative products that become record breakers for our customers.

Silueta is a division of Sri Lanka's largest apparel exporter, MAS Intimates, the intimate apparel arm of MAS Holdings, the USD 800 Million apparel company with Sri Lankan roots. We have set our sights for an exciting future, and are looking for people with passion, drive and exceptional ability to join our team of professionals.
