

Take on the world with the world's local bank

Become a Management Trainee at HSBC

Recognised as 'The Best Global Bank' (Euromoney 2009), HSBC operates in more than 8,000 offices in 88 countries and territories across the world, serving over 1 million customers. As the world's local bank, we are looking for graduates who are passionate, hardworking and full of initiative, to be recruited as future leaders.

There are a number of opportunities open to you at HSBC. To apply, you should have obtained a degree in 2007 or after, and be the kind of person who is going to grab opportunities with both hands.

Starting off as a Management Trainee, you will undergo a structured training programme and will be given the opportunity to gain wide exposure in various functions to acquire an overview of the business. The training will cover formal classroom instructions, covering both financial and management aspects, on-the-job training, job attachments, mentoring by a senior staff member and overseas training.

In addition, the 18 month development programme provides rewarding career prospects and tremendous growth opportunities with the Bank. It aims to develop future leaders for our core businesses and major functional areas, namely Retail Banking, Corporate Banking, Treasury, Risk Management, Human Resources Management, Marketing and Financial Control.

You will take up a managerial role upon successful completion of the programme. This opportunity will open doors to further advance your career to future leadership roles at HSBC in Sri Lanka or in any of the HSBC Group offices around the world.

If you would like to be considered, please send in your CV to career@hsbc.com.lk with the position applied for mentioned on the CV, on or before 16 August 2010.
