LIRNEasia is an ICT policy and regulation think tank based in Colombo but working across the emerging Asia-Pacific. LIRNEasia generates and disseminates actionable knowledge for reforms in ICT sectors, through applied research, dissemination of best practices, training and advisory assistance. Our primary audiences are, companies within and outside the Asia-Pacific, governments (including bilateral and multilateral development agencies), and the media. We are building a team of Asia-Pacific-based ICT policy and regulatory professionals who can work on equal terms with the best in the world.

LIRNEasia is currently looking to fill the following two roles with a self-motivated, quality-conscious and entrepreneurial individuals. While the ideal candidate will be able to fill both roles, we are willing to consider two separate individuals for the two roles:

RESEARCH MANAGER

As a Research Manager at LIRNEasia you will be expected to drive projects from a rapidly expanding research and capacity-building portfolio. In this contract-based position, you will:

- Conduct independent policy-relevant research, subject to deadlines and peer review;
- Communicate research findings to multiple audiences;
- Coordinate evaluation of ongoing research and capacity-building projects;
- Manage research and capacity-building projects from end-to-end, including international meetings and training programs; and
- Contribute toward the writing of project proposals and research reports.

The ideal candidate should have:

- Post-graduate qualifications in economics, law, public policy or engineering, preferably with multidisciplinary experience or exposure;
- Proven experience in project management in an writing-intensive environment;
- Excellent statistical analysis skills and working knowledge of SPSS or other statistical analysis packages; and
- Some familiarity with infrastructure economics and in particular the telecommunications sector, along with exposure to the policy process is highly desirable.

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT MANAGER for MOBILE APPLICATION INCUBATION PLATFORM

As the primary person in charge of a regional consortium/partnership to develop mobile applications targeting the citizens at the Bottom of the Pyramid, you will:

- Identify needs and opportunities in the mobile application space through primary and secondary research;
- Guide the consortium partners towards developing mobile applications that meet those needs;
- Develop the business case for developed applications, obtain funding where necessary and commercialize such applications successfully across the Asia-Pacific;
- Manage relationships with funders of the initiative and handle the overall administration of funds, including responsibility for all reporting requirements.

The ideal candidate should have:

- Previous experience in at least two of the following activities in the product/service commercialization cycle: market research and market sizing, product development, business plan development, fund raising from diverse sources, partnerships development to further the product commercialization process; this can be through running your own business, or through demonstrable past job experience;
- Post-graduate experience in business, project management, marketing, finance or a relevant discipline; this requirement may be waived (substituted by a relevant Bachelor's level degree) for a candidate that has directly relevant work experience;
- A demonstrable ability to motivate and manage a diverse team;
- Familiarity with the software development life cycle or some exposure to mobile development platforms is highly desirable.

For both roles, a high degree of competence in English is an absolute requirement. Knowledge of Tamil, Hindi, Chinese or a major Asian language will be a plus.

Significant foreign travel is required. In addition to a competitive, output-dependent compensation package, the position will enable a motivated researcher who takes advantage of the learning-conducive work environment and networking opportunities to build a rewarding career as an international knowledge professional.

Interested candidates should send their CV and a recent writing sample to hr@lirneasia.net no later than midnight Sunday January 30, 2011. You may specify which post you are applying for (though all applicants will be considered for both roles). No faxed or mailed applications will be accepted.
